The Dead Emperor.

BERLIN, June 17 .- The Emperor and Empress, accompanied by Dowager Empress Augusta and Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden, visited Jasper Gallery this morning. While they were assembled around the bier of the dead monarch, Chaplain Kogel offered dead monarch, Chaplain Kogel offered a brief prayer. Access to the gallery was pronibited to the public until the royal party departed. The post mortem examination was confined to the neck, larynx and lungs. In the larynx which was found to have been destroyed by supuration, was a cavity about the size of the clenched fist. Dr. Mc-Kenzie states, in the report which he prepared at the commond of Emperor William, that the dise.se was beyond doubt cancer of the larynx. He adds that diagnosis was rendered difficult, as the disease attacked the cartilage of the that diagnosis was rendered difficult, as the disease attacked the cartilage of the larynx at the outset, and afterwards developed chiefly in the lower part of the cartilage. The National Zeitung says the autopsy proved that the larynx was completely destroyed by cancer and that putrid bronchitis existed. There was also inflammation of the finer ramifications of the bronchial tubes, into which the putrescent particles had entered, The whole larynx was in a state of suppuration and was a was in a state of suppuration and was a suft, lumpy mass, with scarcely a trace of cartilaginous structure remaining. There was nothing to show the existence of perforation of the walls separating the trachea and assopangus. The choking sensation from which the Emparations of the last days of the last days of teror suffered during the last days of his life, which was attributed to such perforation, appears to have been really due to the destruction of the cartilage. The direct cause of his death is given vices which were held at Balmoral castle to-day, for Emperor Frederick, Queen Victoria was present.

Washington, June 18.—The President and members of the cabinet, except Secretary Whitney, who is out of the city, and Attorney-General Garland, who is sick, attended the services at the German Lutheran church this morning in memory of Emperor Frederick. Many other distinguished people attending, including nearly all members of the diplonatic corps. The services were simple, but very impressive, conducted in the German language, except a poem on "The Dead Kaiter," written by 1. H. Cuthbert, of this city, and read by Pastor Muelier.

BERLIN, June 18.—Emperor William people, in which he says: "The grave scarsely closed over Emperor William I, before my father, Frederick III., was I, before my father, Frederick III., was called away. Emperor Frederick bore his hard fate, and showed heroic Christian resignation. He remained fathful to his kingly duties in the few months allotted him, and exhibited all the noble qualities. His victories in the battlefied will be remembered as long as the German heart continues to beat. I have taken a great aking to the King of all Kings, and pray God, like my father, to be a just, lenient Prince, to loster piety and fear God; to guard peace; to promote the welfare f man; to be a helper of the poor and distressed; to be a firm guardian of of man; to be a helper of the poor and distressed; to be a firm guardian of right and progress in my kinely duties in unison with the people, who in good and evil days have stood true to their kings. I count upon the people's fidelity, and conscious of my purpose reciprocate it heartily as a true Prince to a true p onle, both equally ready to make sacrifices for the faitherland. My confidence, if derived from this, and God will send strength and wisdom to discharge Kingly the office for the bene-

POTSUAM, June the 18—She second service over the remains of the Em-peror was held at Friedrichskron Castle last evening Emperor William. the Empress Dowager Emp ess Augusta and Victor a, all members of the Ger-man imperial houses, and their entire and Votor a, all members of the German imperial houses, and their entire families were present. At conclusion of the service, the coffin was officially closed and placed on the same state bier used by Emperor William. This morning emblems of grief were everywhere from the castle to Friedenskirsoker, torohes and cressels were seen, huge flagstaffs and poles bear banners with members and positions, various associations proceeded to the places of ceremonies at Friedrichskron Castle and began with the performance of Bach's "Bald Rufat du Mich zu hohster Frieder," then choral "Jesus Meine Zuversicht" was sung. As the last strains died away, Chaplain Koegal offered a prayer, alluded in feeling terms to the double grievous visitation upon the Imperial bouse and the nation. The choral "Wenn ica Einmal Soll Scheiden" was then sung, after which the coffin was removed from the castle and placed on the funeral car, the choir singing, "I know that my Redegmer liveth." The procession then moved to the church and the mourners took the seats assigned them. After the service, Chaplain Koegal pronounced

Before leaving, the widowed Empress bent over the coffin and took a solemn, farewell look at her dead husband's face. The Court Prescher. Persus, repeated the closing prayer, and the choir intoned the dirge. In the procession from the castle to the church, the Prince of Wales walked with the Emperor and King of Saxony. Among those who took part in the procession were Prince Henry the Second, son of the deceased Emperor hereditary Prince of Saxe Meinenger, and the Generals of the army, headed by Moltke, erals of the army, headed by Moltke, who carried a marshal's staff. Bodies of Prussian corps of guards and dragoon guards brought up the rear The ceremonies ended shortly before 1 o'clock.

SPECIFIATIONS AS TO WILLIAM

Paris, June 18 .- Most of the Paris papers regard Emperor William's orders to the army as having a warlike tone, contrasting singularly with the rescripts of Frederick. Some journals, notably the Sicole, which has a moderate article views the Emperor's language as merely that of a soldier addressing soldiers, and expresses the hope that Emperor William's proclamation to the Perseign proclamation to the Perseig tion to the Prussian people will be deoidedly pacific.

St. Petersone, June 18.—The Jour St. Perraseure, June 18.—The Jour nai de St. P.tersburg, in an article on the probable foreign policy of thnew German Emperor, says he will be guided by the good seuse that char acterized the two preceding ones. It expresses the hope that the memorablewords of the late Emperor William on his death bed will be regarded as a sacred legacy by the grandson to guide Germany's relations with the Russian people.

Caused by Drink.

CHICAGO, June 17 .- A special from Parkersburg, West Virginia, says: Two families named Brewer and Bush, who live upon adjoining premises, at a plac called Happy Hollow, on the railroad a few miles north of here, on the Ohio ide, have been enraged in a contention concerning a line fence, water rightand other common property. William Brewer had been drinking yesterday, and in the evening, passing a neighbor's house, saw Mrs. Bush and her two son-, house, saw Mrs. Bush and ner two son-, Thomas and Charles, talking at the gate. He drew a knife and stabbed Charles in the back. Mrs. Bush and the other son then interfered, and Brewer, grasping the old lady by the arm, struck her several times in the throat and cut her terribly in the neck from which she soon bled to death. By this time Bush and a man named Cleaver, attacked Brewer with clubs sn stones, beating him until he was fatally stones, beating him until he was fatally injured. Beower is a giant in strength and made a desperate fight, cotting and slashing his assailants, but inflicting no severe wounds. One of his hands wa almost cut off, two long gashes were on his head and face and his neck was horribly slashed. Charles Bush has since died.

CHICAGO, June 17 .- "Of course Oregon's delegation wants Blaine," said Hon. L. F. Barin, at the Leland to-day. When I say we want Blaine," he con tinued, "I do not mean we intend to make any furious fight for his nomination. He has withdrawn his romination, and I don't think he should be pressed or forced into acceptance of the candidacy if he is not willing to doso, but the fact remains that James G. Blaine is most popular in our state and would polifa larger vote than any man that could be nominated. Still, the Presidential nominee of the Chicago convention will be sure of a round massipity in Oregon. Our State gives a larger Republican majority in Proportion to its population than any other. I say this as my opinion and belief. I is wonderful how unanimous our people of Oregon are for protection of American industries."

"Well, I can't say; there are among us Greaham men and those for Blain, of course, but we will not be inharmoning." make any furious fight for his nomina
